

Worksheet

Modal Verb Should

1 - Change the sentences with “Should” to the negative and interrogative form:

a) Paul should visit Nice while you are in France.

Neg.: Paul should not (shouldn't) visit Nice while you are in France.

Int.: Should Paul visit Nice while you are in France?

b) Children should drink milk for breakfast.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

c) I should go to the doctor right now.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

d) We should finish his task.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

e) Her kids should read that book.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

f) They should be ashamed of themselves.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

g) She should look for another job.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

h) Your son should eat healthy food.

Neg.: _____

Int.: _____

2 - Find the correct use of the Modal Verb Should: affirmative or negative:

- a) You have a great job; you should not (shouldn't) complain about it. [complain]
- b) You _____ so much coffee; it's bad for your blood pressure. [drink]
- c) He _____ harder for this difficult exam. [study]
- d) It's an incredible film. You _____ it. [watch]
- e) It's a very dangerous area. Tourists _____ there. [go]