

Direct Speech

Directions: Rewrite the sentences using the DIRECT SPEECH

Example: My mother said I needed to do my homework-- "You need to do your homework "my mother said.

1. My dad asked me where I was

"Where are you?" My dad asked.

2. My sister asked me to stop jumping on the bed.

"Stop jumping on the bed," my sister asked.

3. The teacher said that I had earned the best grades in the class.

"You earned the best grades in the class!" My teacher said.

4. My friend asked me if I was hungry.

"Are you hungry?" my friend asked.

5. The doctor said that I needed to start a diet.

"You need to start a diet," the doctor said.

Directions: Rewrite the sentences below in the INDIRECT SPEECH.

1. "George has been here for 3 days," John said.

John said that George had been there for 3 days.

2. "Have the students cheated during the test?" the teacher asked.

The teacher asked if the students had cheated during the test.

3. "Don't call me anymore!" his ex-girlfriend said.

His ex-girlfriend said not to call her anymore.

4. "Where was your sister last night?" my father asked.

My father asked where my sister had been the night before.

