

Possessive Adjectives and Possessive Pronouns - Review

Preencha as lacunas das frases utilizando tanto os possessive adjectives (my, your, his, her, its, our, your, their) quanto os possessive pronouns (mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, yours, theirs).

1. Jenny and _____ brothers, Mark and Peter, are good students.
2. A: "Mrs Green, how old is _____ daughter?"
B: "_____ daughter is 26."
3. Rick and _____ sister are studying their lessons.
4. I have two sisters. _____ names are Ann and Sue.
5. A: "Suzie and Sally, is Mary _____ sister?"
B: "Yes, she is _____ sister."
6. Bill and _____ brother are here.
7. She doesn't have a book. So this book is not _____.
8. _____ (I) friend Amy is very happy. Today is _____ birthday.
9. We have _____ books in the bag. Do you have _____?
10. They are doing _____ homework and he is doing _____.
11. I have a brother. Paul is _____ brother and I am _____ sister.
12. This is a wonderful doll. _____ eyes are big and blue.
13. _____ (he) classes begin at 9. We are very late because _____ begin at 8.30.
14. Do you have a lot of Canadian friends? Write _____ names.
15. My school is modern. _____ rooms are large.
16. There are Mr and Mrs Johnson with _____ children.
17. A: "Is this your book, Mia?"
B: "No, this book is my brother's. That one is _____ (I)."
18. _____ (she) pet is the white cat, _____ (we) is the caramel dog.
19. Look, boys! I've found lots of postcards. Are they _____?
20. Ann and Susan are talking to _____ parents. Carol is talking to _____.

Answer Key

Preencha as lacunas das frases utilizando tanto os possessive adjectives (my, your, his, her, its, our, your, their) quanto os possessive pronouns (mine, yours, his, hers, its, ours, yours, theirs).

1. Jenny and her brothers, Mark and Peter, are good students.
2. A: "Mrs Green, how old is your daughter?"
B: "My daughter is 26."
3. Rick and his sister are studying their lessons.
4. I have two sisters. Their names are Ann and Sue.
5. A: "Suzie and Sally, is Mary your sister?"
B: "Yes, she is our sister."
6. Bill and his brother are here.
7. She doesn't have a book. So this book is not hers.
8. My (I) friend Amy is very happy. Today is her birthday.
9. We have our books in the bag. Do you have yours?
10. They are doing their homework and he is doing his.
11. I have a brother. Paul is my brother and I am his sister.
12. This is a wonderful doll. Its eyes are big and blue.
13. His (he) classes begin at 9. We are very late because ours begin at 8.30.
14. Do you have a lot of Canadian friends? Write their names.
15. My school is modern. Its rooms are large.
16. There are Mr and Mrs Johnson with their children.
17. A: "Is this your book, Mia?"
B: "No, this book is my brother's. That one is mine (I)."
18. Her (she) pet is the white cat, ours (we) is the caramel dog.
19. Look, boys! I've found lots of postcards. Are they yours?
20. Ann and Susan are talking to their parents. Carol is talking to hers.